“Ecclesiastical Update”

April 3, 2022

We practice love, explore spirituality, build community, and promote justice.

Welcome to East Shore Unitarian Church

We extend a special welcome to all who are here for the first time. We are glad you are here and hope your morning will provide you with a greater sense of connection with yourself, with the people around you, and with the world and spirit outside these walls. After today's service, please join us outside for coffee, tea, and conversation.

If you didn't stop by before service, please stop by the visitors desk in the foyer. There you can learn more about the church, and fill out a visitor form. During the week, we will contact you to see if you have any more questions, and help you navigate through all of our amazing programs and groups.

Large-print hymnals and a braille hymnal are available in the foyer from the ushers. Our hearing assistance devices use T-Coil loop technology. Hearing assistance devices are also available in the back of the Sanctuary or from the ushers.

Gender Affirming Restrooms are located in each building. A gender-neutral restroom is located in the Administration Building. Diaper changing stations are located in all restrooms.

Families, Children & Youth

Families are an important part of faith communities and we are so glad you are here! We want you all to attend worship together, either online or in person. There is no onsite childcare during worship at this time. There is a rug in the back of the Sanctuary with book and toys for babies and kids and E-101 is open for free play. Children and youth classes are held at 12pm. Please find more information in the weekly Friday newsletter for children and youth. <http://bit.ly/ESUCemails>

Keeping In Touch

Do you want to keep in touch during the week? Follow us on Facebook (EastShoreUC), Twitter (@ESUC1) and Instagram (eastshore_uc). You can also request to join our email list by emailing our Director of Membership Development at membership@esuc.org. Paper copies of Rev. Furrer's sermons and audio copies of the service of the service are available in the Administration Building. You can also listen to the sermons online at esuc.org/worship/past-worship-services. Sermons are also available as Podcasts, search for "East Shore Unitarian Sermons." Sermons are posted on Tuesdays.

Have a suggestion? Leave your comments and suggestions in the box located under the TV screen in the Sanctuary lobby.

Please return this Order of Service to the baskets by the door for recycling.

"May the Love which overcomes all differences, which heals all wounds, which puts to flight all fears, which reconciles all who are separated, be in us and among us now and always."

Rev Frederick E. Gillis, UU Minister

Chalice Lighting & Call to Worship

Chalice Response

We light this chalice to remind ourselves to treat all people kindly because they are our siblings in spirit;

To take good care of the earth because it is our home;

And to try to live lives filled with goodness and love because that is how we will become the best people we can be.

East Shore Unitarian Church Covenant

Love is the doctrine of this church.

The quest for truth is its sacrament, and service is its prayer.

To dwell together in peace, to seek knowledge in freedom,

To serve humanity in fellowship, thus do we covenant.

TODAY AT EAST SHORE

Coffee Hour: 11:30 a.m., Outdoors and On Zoom: Enjoy a casual time to get to know the East Shore community. You will be put into groups for easy conversation. All are welcome! Those in person, head outside and gather with others! There will be coffee and tea outside.

Religious Exploration: 12:00 p.m., Outdoors: Today will be a Sunflower Art and Garden Peace Party! We'll be outside, learning about the UUSC efforts in Ukraine, making a piece of artwork with a sunflower on canvases using paint and different media. We'll also plant sunflower seeds. This is led by our RE Leader Volunteers and everyone is welcome.

Black Lives Matter Flash Stance: 12:30 p.m., Bellevue: Join fellow UU activists for our Black Lives Matter Flash Stance in person in Factoria on the corner by Dacell’s Jewelers. We gather in solidarity with Black, Brown, and Indigenous People of Color. Flash Stances start conversations, and then carry those conversations on. All are welcome!

ESUC NEWS

Ushering In Our Future: This is the time to renew your pledges to East Shore to support our mission for 2022-23. It’s best to think of what East Shore means to you, and what that means financially. Please return your pledge cards TODAY.

Volunteers Needed!: We are looking for volunteers for many roles! Here’s a sampling: Ushers & Greeters, Coffee Hour Hosts, RE Teachers and Assistants, Office Volunteers, Zoom Worship Tech, RE Supplies Support. Talk to any staff member for more details.

Women’s Perspective Retreat Registration Now Open! Join us April 22-24 for “Transforming Conflict through Love in Action” with Kathleen Macferran! We will explore our personal responses to conflict; learn how to hear others without judgement, express clearly our ideas, and practice new responsive skills. Registration now open at esuc.org.

Seabek Memorial Day Weekend Registration Now Open! Mark your calendars for Friday, May 27 to Monday, May 30. Offerings for the weekend will include opportunities for both inner and outer reflection and growth. We are creating a safer camp experience by offering more outdoor options. Registration now at esuc.org or in the office and talk to Nicole.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Learn to be a Worship Zoom Tech!: Tuesdays, 3:00 p.m. (Virtual): Ever been curious about what goes on behind the scenes the make virtual worship services happen? We need your help! Join Jenny on Tuesday afternoons at 3:00 p.m. via Zoom to learn more about what a Worship co-host does. Join via Zoom 828 9915 7872, Passcode: zoom

Women's Perspective Kubota Gardens Walk: Wednesday, April 13, 2:00 p.m. (In Person): Kubota is lovely year round. It is a 20 acre urban gem, located in a residential neighborhood, not too far from the Rainier Beach Light Rail station. Right now there aren't too many flowers, but you can really see the beautiful branching of the maple trees and so many shades of green. It is not too busy this time of year, especially during the week days. There is no charge for parking or entrance. RSVP to Geri Kennedy.

Ritual In Our Lives: Wednesdays, April 13, 27, and May 11, 7:00 p.m. (Multiplatform): Rev. Furrer was a thespian in his youth and has long felt that dramatic training was a wonderful readiness regimen for parish ministry. Come participate, in-person or online, in a five-part analytical, emotionally engaging study of ritual in our (1) every day and (2) Sunday lives, led by Grace Colton and Reverend Furrer. Register at esuc.org.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF OUR INDIGENOUS NEIGHBORS

We acknowledge that this land is the traditional territory of indigenous peoples: the Duwamish, Snohomish, Tulalip, Snoqualmie, Muckleshoot, Puyallup, Suquamish, and Wenatchi nations, among others. We recognize the impact of settler colonialism on these peoples. We pledge to nurture our relationship with our Coast Salish neighbors as we work to restore and sustain their homelands upon which we all depend.

East Shore Unitarian Church is proud to publicly support the Black Lives Matter movement. This stance is in alignment with the values of our faith and is also endorsed by the UUA. More information can be found at www.uua.org/statements/support-black-lives-matter-movement.

The Eight Principles

Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote eight Principles, which we hold as strong values and moral guides. They are:

- * The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- * Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- * Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- * A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- * The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- * The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- * Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
- * Journeying toward spiritual wholeness by working to build a diverse multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions.

Getting to Know Us

Where to Start: Attend worship services, introduce your children to Religious Education, come to coffee hour, join the choir, participate in East Shore's variety of activities and classes. You can read more about these in our newsletter, The Beacon, or if you sign up for the weekly e-mail (at the visitors table).

Learn More about Becoming a Member: Talk to our Director of Membership Development for details about our Pathway to Membership.

Ways to Support East Shore's Mission

Donations to East Shore go to support the operating fund. This allows us to be open seven days a week, offer great programming, classes, and events. Please join us for some upcoming classes or events!

There are many ways to volunteer your time at East Shore, whether you like to do office work, grounds work, or working with children. We are open 7 days a week, and could always use more help. For more information, fill out a form at www.esuc.org/give/volunteer/ or contact our Office Administrator, Jenny Newell.
