“Welcoming Change: A Celebration of Children, Youth, and Family Ministries”

June 19, 2022

We practice love, explore spirituality, build community, and promote justice.

Welcome to East Shore Unitarian Church

We extend a special welcome to all who are here for the first time. We are glad you are here and hope your morning will provide you with a greater sense of connection with yourself, with the people around you, and with the world and spirit outside these walls. After today's service, please join us outside for coffee, tea, and conversation.

If you didn't stop by before service, please stop by the visitors desk in the foyer. There you can learn more about the church, and fill out a visitor form. During the week, we will contact you to see if you have any more questions, and help you navigate through all of our amazing programs and groups.

Large-print hymnals and a braille hymnal are available in the foyer from the ushers. Our hearing assistance devices use T-Coil loop technology. Hearing assistance devices are also available in the back of the Sanctuary or from the ushers.

Gender Affirming Restrooms are located in each building. A private restroom is located in the Administration Building. Diaper changing stations are located in all restrooms.

Children, Youth, and Family Ministry

Families are an important part of faith communities and we are so glad you are here! We want you all to attend worship together, either online or in person. There is no onsite childcare during worship at this time. There is a rug in the back of the Sanctuary with book and toys for babies and kids and E-101 is open for free play. Children and youth classes are held at 12pm. Please find more information in the weekly Friday newsletter for children and youth. <http://bit.ly/ESUCemails>

Keeping In Touch

Do you want to keep in touch during the week? Follow us on Facebook (EastShoreUC), Twitter (@ESUC1) and Instagram (eastshore_uc). You can also request to join our email list by emailing our Director of Membership Development at membership@esuc.org. Paper copies of Rev. Furrer's sermons and audio copies of the service of the service are available in the Administration Building. You can also listen to the sermons online at esuc.org/worship/past-worship-services. Sermons are also available as Podcasts, search for "East Shore Unitarian Sermons." Sermons are posted on Tuesdays.

Have a suggestion? Leave your comments and suggestions in the box located under the TV screen in the Sanctuary lobby.

Please return this Order of Service to the baskets by the door for recycling.

*Love is something if you give it away, Give it away, give it away.
Love is something if you give it away, You end up having more.*

Hymn

Come, Come, Whoever You Are

Come, Come, Whoever you are

Wanderer, worshiper, lover of leaving

Come, Come, Whoever you are

This isn't a caravan of despair x 2

It doesn't matter if you've broken your vows a thousand times before

And yet again come again come come again

Chalice Lighting & Response

Lexi Myers

We light this chalice to remind ourselves to treat all people kindly because they are our siblings in spirit;

To take good care of the earth because it is our home;

And to try to live lives filled with goodness and love because that is how we will become the best people we can be.

East Shore Unitarian Church Covenant

Artemis Montgomery-Walkup

Love is the doctrine of this church.

The quest for truth is its sacrament, and service is its prayer.

To dwell together in peace, to seek knowledge in freedom,

To serve humanity in fellowship, thus do we covenant.

Hymn #1003

Where Do We Come From?

- 1 — Where do we come from? What are we? Where are we going?
- 2 — Where do we come from?
- 3 — Mystery. Mystery. Life is a riddle and a mystery.

Sung Benediction

Magic Penny

Malvina Reynolds

Love is something if you give it away,
Give it away, give it away.
Love is something if you give it away,
You end up having more.
It's just like a magic penny,
Hold it tight and you won't have any.
Lend it, spend it, and you'll have so many
They'll roll all over the floor.
For love is something if you give it away,
Give it away, give it away.
Love is something if you give it away,
You end up having more.

Postlude

Where You Go, I Will Go, Beloved

by Shoshana Jedwab

Where you go, I will go, Beloved/Children
Where you go, I will go
Where you go, I will go, Beloved/Children
Where you go, I will go
And where you lie, I will lie, Beloved/Children
Where you lie, I will lie
Where you lie, I will lie, Beloved/Children
Where you lie, I will lie
And your people are my people
Your people are mine
Your people are my people
Your Divine my Divine
And your people are my people
Your people are mine
Your people are my people
Your Divine my Divine

Thank you for silencing all electronic devices. Please ask any usher for an assisted listening device, a large print hymnal, or a braille hymnal.

Please feel free to fill out a card for joys and sorrows located at the back of the Sanctuary. These cards can be read during the Pastoral Prayer. Candles are also available to light to recognize a joy or concern.

Next Sunday, June 26, at 9:30 a.m.

“General Assembly”

Join us for the largest annual gathering of UUs joining in worship from home or in Portland, OR. With staff at General Assembly, we encourage all of you to log in and watch the Sunday Morning Service live from GA! This powerful, communal worship experience will stream at 9:30 a.m. (NOTE THE TIME CHANGE).

TODAY AT EAST SHORE

Coffee Hour: 11:30 a.m.: After worship, enjoy a casual time to get to know the East Shore community of friends and members. You will be put into groups of 4-6 for easy conversation and mingling. All are welcome! For those in person, head outside and gather with others! There will be coffee and tea outside, please consider bringing your own travel mug!

RE Outdoors/Family Circle: 12:00 p.m.: Join us for the final RE Outdoors of the year! Our core curricula center on UU principles and the sources of wisdom from which those derive: world religions, our own direct experience, and the natural world of which we are a part.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Join the East Shore Outdoors Group: Misc. Dates (In Person): As the better weather approaches, many of us want to get outside and enjoy the beautiful scenery of the Pacific Northwest. You can do that, and contribute to building community at East Shore, by participating in walks and hikes organized by the East Shore Outdoors group. To learn more contact Amanda Strombom.

Introduction to Paleontology: Tuesdays, 7:00 p.m. (Virtual): How did we—not just humans, but all of life, and planet Earth itself—come to be? In Introduction to Paleontology, you'll see how new technologies like dispersive x-ray spectroscopy and x-ray computer tomography have joined the tried-and-true backhoe, hammer, and chisel. Join at rebrand.ly/zhzte8a

Fourth Wednesday Book Club: The Great Influenza: Wednesday, June 22, 7:30 p.m. (Virtual): Please join us to discuss The Great Influenza: The Story of the Deadliest Pandemic in History by John M. Barry. Join via Zoom 896 7249 9304, Passcode: 403930

General Assembly 2022: June 22-26 (Multiplatform): General Assembly is the annual gathering of Unitarian Universalists, where we conduct business of the Association, explore the theological underpinnings of our faith, and lean fully into our mission and principles. On Thursday, watch out own amanda alicia uluhan as she is recognized for her certification in the Service of the Living Tradition. You can learn more and register at uua.org/ga.

ESUC NEWS

Help Rev. María Cristina Get To Know Us: As we anticipate the arrival of our new settled minister this August, let's take time to share about us. Women's Perspective is creating a binder filled with individual profiles written by each of East Shore's members and friends— in our own words! Pick up a copy of the form on the front desk in the Administration building.

East Shore's Community Mural Project is our main community action project for 2022: People of all ages and abilities can get involved here. On June 20-25th, we'll prep and paint the mural background. On June 27-July 1, we'll paint the mural in with campers. Speak with Doug Strombom if you have any questions about the community mural project.

Backpack Collection: Now-June 26: This month we are partnering with with Congregations for Kids Good Start Back to School, who provide supplies to school age kids throughout the Bellevue School District. We are doing a collection of Sturdy Backpacks now until June 26. Please join is in your support and shop for Backpacks without slings or wheels; padded backs for 4th through high school; large size for middle and high school, with laptop compartments; solid colors (no red) for high school.

The Eight Principles

Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote eight Principles, which we hold as strong values and moral guides. They are:

- * The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- * Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- * Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- * A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- * The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- * The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- * Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
- * Journeying toward spiritual wholeness by working to build a diverse multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF OUR INDIGENOUS NEIGHBORS

We acknowledge that this land is the traditional territory of indigenous peoples: the Duwamish, Snohomish, Tulalip, Snoqualmie, Muckleshoot, Puyallup, Suquamish, and Wenatchi nations, among others. We recognize the impact of settler colonialism on these peoples. We pledge to nurture our relationship with our Coast Salish neighbors as we work to restore and sustain their homelands upon which we all depend.

East Shore Unitarian Church is proud to publicly support the Black Lives Matter movement. This stance is in alignment with the values of our faith and is also endorsed by the UUA. More information can be found at www.uua.org/statements/support-black-lives-matter-movement.
