

Auction Items: Get Them While You Can!

| Item # | Title | Requested Donation | Description |
|--------|---|--------------------|--|
| 103 | Learn How to Make a Flat-Spiral Bracelet | $40 | Come create your own custom bracelet!!!! This is an easy beginners' jewelry class that anyone can do. 9 lucky winners will attend one of 3 identical classes taught by Renee at her home in Issaquah. Winning bidders will be able to select their materials including needle thread clasp and crystals stones pearls Czech beads etc. from the instructor's stash to create their one-of-a-kind bracelet. Renee will also provide written instructions that can be taken home after the class to create more lovely bracelets for friends and family. Renee will arrange 3 classes each lasting about 3 hours with 3 attendees at each - class times will be based on participants' schedules. This project is ideal for adults and teenagers - come to create something beautiful! |
| 106 | Eat Play Love (Bridge Edition) | $15 | Hungry for a little mischief with your midday meal? Come grab lunch and then shuffle your way into an afternoon of bridge laughter and friendly competition. Whether you're a card-shark in disguise or just here to gab while you play, we've got a seat with your name on it. Bring your appetite bring your lucky charm and get ready to trump a few tricks while having a great time. Hang around after the service as we'll be in Spring Hall starting at about 12:15 on May 31. |
| 107 | Telestrations Game Night | $10 | Ten lucky winners will join Beth Wilson and Joe Rogers at their home in Bellevue on October 10, 2026, at 7pm for a rousing evening of Telestrations, a hilarious non-competitive game guaranteed to make you laugh! Telestrations is essentially a mix of Pictionary and the telephone game and is appropriate for all ages. Snacks and drinks will be provided. Come laugh with us! |
| 114 | Tutoring/editing | $40 | Career high school teacher Mike Radow will spend up to three hours with your high school student discussing history/politics and help with essays or college applications. Time and place TBD. |
| 127 | Day Hikes and Car Camping in North Cascades National Park | $40 | Dave Baumgart will lead a 3-night camping trip into the North Cascades. On Friday July 10th up to 12 lucky bidders will caravan/carpool through the North Cascades, one of the most beautiful parts of Washington State to reach the Mazama area just east of the mountains and there they will set up a base camp. There may be time for a short local hike on Friday afternoon. Saturday and Sunday will be spent exploring longer dayhikes in the North Cascades near Rainy Pass filled with breathtaking scenery. On Monday morning the group will break camp and head back home completing the Cascade Loop National Scenic Byway. Scheduled from Friday July 10th through Monday July 13th. |

| | | | |
|-----|--|-------|--|
| 137 | Chocolate Factory Tour at Boehm's Candies | $10 | Join Caroline Haessly to learn about the chocolate making process and taste chocolate as you tour the factory of Boehm's Candies in Issaquah. The tour is 60 minutes of standing and walking with an optional flight of stairs to the chalet. (No seating is available.) Note: candies containing allergens are made on common equipment. Since the factory is closed on weekends this tour is only available on weekdays so the tour will be on Monday April 20, 2026, at 10:15am. Enjoy a visit to the retail store at the end of your tour! |
| 160 | MB3Artistry piece #214 - Candleholder by Manny Brown | $100 |  Imagine this beautiful candle holder residing in your house to brighten the dark days. This piece measures 7x5x38” and holds 5 candles (included). It is hand-crafted from natural cedar and coated with a clear resin finish. Manny Brown is a long-time Issaquah resident and member of East Shore. He is known for his activism, the creator of Flashstance and his one-of-a-kind art pieces. Check out MB3Artistry.com the same on Facebook and Instagram for more information and pieces. |
| 212 | Spring Hike with Dave Baumgart | $40 | Our Spring Hike with Dave will take us to the Middle Fork of the Snoqualmie River. Join us for a relatively flat hike along a lovely alpine river. Get outside for some fresh air and a gorgeous local hike at the Middle Fork with Dave Baumgart and a group of fellow East Shore hikers! Hiking along this river is a wonderful experience; the whispering of the wind through the trees and the birdsong from the fish-eating birds that live in the area. We'll carpool to the North Bend Bakery for a morning pastry and a mug of hot chocolate before hitting the trail. We then drive the paved Middle Fork Road (FR56) through the forest. Children of all ages are welcome to join with a parent at no additional cost. After a hike of about 2½ miles we will have our lunch along the river. A bag lunch will be provided for each of the winning bidders. For more hike details see: https://www.wta.org/go-hiking/hikes/middle-fork-snoqualmie-upstream |
| 265 | Indigenous Books/Stories Bag #2 - Young Adults! | $50 | Donated by the Indigenous Connections Team Offer children & youth a chance to learn about Indigenous history and wisdom - a book bag with five books for children and youth. (Adults will enjoy these, too!) BAG #2 – Children & Youth Collection Keepunumuk - Weeâchumun’s Thanksgiving Story (Danielle Greendeer et al 2022) In this Wampanoag story, two kids from the Mashpee Wampanoag tribe learn the story of Weeâchumun (corn) and the first Thanksgiving. https://birchbarkbooks.com/products/keepunumuk |

| | | | |
|-----|---|------|--|
| | | | Braiding Sweetgrass for Young Adults - Indigenous Wisdom, Scientific Knowledge, and the Teachings of Plants (Robin Wall Kimmerer 2022) With informative sidebars, reflection questions, and art, this book brings Indigenous wisdom, scientific knowledge, and the lessons of plants to a new generation. https://birchbarkbooks.com/products/braiding-sweetgrass-for-young-adults An Indigenous Peoples' History of the United States for Young People (Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz 2019) The original academic text is fully adapted for middle-grade and young adult readers, including discussion topics, archival images, original maps, further reading, and other materials. https://birchbarkbooks.com/products/an-indigenous-peoples-history-of-the-united-states-for-young-people Thunder Song - Essays (Sasha taq^wšəblu LaPointe 2024) Drawing on a rich family archive as well as the work of her great-grandmother (Vi Hilbert, see Haboo), LaPointe explores themes ranging from identity, stereotypes, cultural displacement, environmental degradation, and the power of community. https://www.counterpointpress.com/books/thunder-song/ Haboo - Native American Stories from Puget Sound (translated and edited by Vi Hilbert) Vi taq^wšəblu Hilbert was one of the last fluent speakers of Lushootseed, the language of the Coast Salish people. This collection shows the vibrancy and beauty of Coast Salish stories: they are educational and humorous. https://uwapress.uw.edu/book/9780295746968/haboo/ |
| 266 | Climate Action Book Bonanza Bag #2 - Adults | $50 | These are favorite books donated by ECAM (Earth and Climate Action Ministry): The Trees are Speaking: Dispatches from the Salmon Forests. This book explores the connection between old-growth forests and salmon and efforts to protect manage and restore forests in the Pacific NW and New England. Signed by the author (Lynda Mapes). How to Avoid a Climate Disaster: The Solutions We Have and Breakthroughs we Need. This book describes the challenges of climate change and how specific policies and technology to achieve net=zero greenhouse gas emissions. All We Can Save: Truth Courage and Solutions for the Climate Crisis. These essays provide insights from diverse women at the forefront of the climate movement including scientists farmers and journalists. National bestseller. Crow Planet: Essential Wisdom from the Urban Wilderness. Even in cities and suburbs we are surrounded by wildlife. By observing the abundance of crows around us we can enhance our appreciation of the world's natural order. The New Climate Wars The Fight to Take Back Our Planet. A renowned climate scientist shows how fossil fuel companies have waged a thirty-year campaign to deflect blame and responsibility and delay action |

| | | | |
|-----|--|------|---|
| | | | on climate change and how we can fight back. The Book of Hope: A Survival Guide for Trying Times. Through dialogue stories and photographs the authors touch on what it means to be human and what we need to do to hold onto hope and build a better world. NYT Bestseller. The Archipelago of Hope: Wisdom and Resilience from the Edge of Climate Change. This engaging book details the experiences of five indigenous groups around the world from the Arctic to the Amazon as they adapt to a changing world. Solutionary Rail: A People-Powered Campaign to Electrify America's Railroads and Open Corridors to a Clean Energy Future. Solutionary Rail is a grassroots campaign to electrify US railroads and open rail corridors for renewable energy transmission. This book provides ideas and resources driving the campaign. |
| 267 | Basket of Intercultural Books for Young Adults | $30 | This basket of award-winning young adult books address issues of identity race immigration Titles include: 'The Sun is Also a Star' by Nicola Yoon; 'The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian' by Sherman Alexei; 'I am not Your Perfectly Mexican Daughter' by Erika L. Sanchez; and 'Dear Martin' by Nic Stone. These books are recommended for ages 12 and up. The donor Sarah Bergdahl says: "As an intercultural mediator I highly recommend learning about one's implicit culture and that of others as early as possible. There is more to culture than food and clothes. Knowledge increases our perspective and empathy and reduces conflict!" What a meaningful gift for a young adult or reading for yourself! |